A. TERMS

- (1) The 150th Open will be decided by stroke play over four rounds of 18 holes in accordance with the Rules of Golf as approved by R&A Rules Limited and in accordance with the Local Rules approved by R&A Championships Limited (The R&A).
- (2) In the event of a tie after four rounds, the winner will be decided by a play-off by stroke play over an amount of holes to be determined by the Open Championships Committee. The player with the lowest aggregate over the extra holes will be declared the winner. If the players are still tied having played these extra holes, a hole-by-hole play-off will be played immediately over the 18th hole only until a winner emerges. If the play-off involves more than 2 players, those other than the winner will be deemed to have tied for 2nd place regardless of their scores in the play-off.
- (3) The starting field will be 156 players. The 70 lowest scores over the first 36 holes and any tying for 70th place will qualify for the 3rd round on Saturday 16 July and the 4th round on Sunday 17 July. If a player who has posted a two round total score that will qualify for the 3rd round, withdraws before or after the 3rd round draw is made, the player's score will still be used to calculate the leading 70 places and ties that will determine the cut mark.
- (4) In the event of play being either delayed or declared null and void for any round of The Open, additional play will be at the discretion of the Open Championships Committee. Additional play will take place on Monday 18 July and exceptionally Tuesday 19 July.
- (5) The R&A arranges publicity before and during The Open in the Press and by live and recorded radio and television broadcasting and filming and on the Internet. Each player agrees to make reasonable efforts during the Championship to attend press conferences and to co-operate with the media in support of The Open including, appearances for The R&A's broadcast partners. Each player by entering The Open and thereby agreeing to these Terms assigns to The R&A and its assignees and licensees the right in perpetuity throughout the world to make, use, exhibit and reproduce in any way now known or hereafter devised (and to authorise others to do so) for commercial and other purposes from time to time and at their discretion, motion pictures, still pictures, live taped or filmed television, sound recordings and any other reproductions of any description of the player and/or their caddie made during or in connection with The Open (including, without limitation, during practice and play) without compensation for the player or caddie or the heirs, successors, executors, administrators or assignees of the player or caddie. Players will be responsible for ensuring that they hold all the necessary rights to grant the above assignments, including appropriate agreements with their caddies. Notwithstanding the foregoing grant of rights, The R&A and its assignees and licensees agree that, other than as permitted above, they will not authorise any company contractually associated with The R&A to use the player's or caddie's name, voice, likeness and biographical material in a way which constitutes the endorsement of a product or service, without first requiring such associated company to obtain the player's authorisation. Also, to comply with certain contractual limitations relating to advertising on television, players assent that they or their caddies may not, without the prior approval of The R&A, display any commercial identification on clothing or equipment other than that customarily affixed to and of the normal size and in the normal position on any such clothing or equipment.
- (6) The R&A expects players and their team to conduct themselves in a manner that is respectful of The Open and the sport of golf. Players and their team shall at all times act in the best interests of the sport and The Open, and shall not conduct themselves in an unlawful or improper manner or so as to bring The Open, The R&A, the sport of golf or its governing bodies into disrepute and shall not use any one of or a combination of, violent conduct, threatening, abusive, indecent or insulting words or behaviour. Players and their team shall comply with any Code of Conduct set by the Open Championships Committee from time to time. For the purposes of this condition, a player's team includes their caddies as well as any agents, coaches or other support team including family members present at The Open or in the environs of The Open venue or otherwise acting in relation to The Open.
- (7) Players will at all times be liable for the actions of their caddies and will ensure that the caddies comply with the Terms as they apply to the players. Players will ensure that their caddies wear clothing of a type appropriate to The Open and, in particular, caddies will be required to wear The Open over-garment or bib of a type and design as will be supplied by the Open Championships Committee. Caddies will be required to wear such an over-garment or bib during official practice rounds and during The Open. Players' caddies may not wear headgear, visors or any other items of clothing which displays a logo other than The Open's official logo unless such logo represents a contract to which the player or the caddie was bound as at 31 January 2022.

In addition, an information service for players will be available throughout The Open to answer any outstanding questions on the conformity of their equipment. Those players randomly selected will be notified via the official information board at The Open.
- (12) A copy of the full pace of play policy will be posted at The Open and qualifying events and will be available on request.
