- (2) In the event of a tie after four rounds, the winner will be decided by a play-off by stroke play over an amount of holes to be determined by the Open Championships Committee.
The player with the lowest aggregate over the extra holes will be declared the winner. If the players are still tied having played these extra holes, a hole-by-hole play-off will be played immediately over the 18th hole only until a winner emerges. If the play-off involves more than 2 players, those other than the winner will be deemed to have tied for 2nd place regardless of their scores in the play-off.
- (3) The starting field will be 156 players. The 70 lowest scores over the first 36 holes and any tying for 70th place will qualify for the 3rd round on Saturday 22 July and the 4th round on Sunday 23 July. If a player who has posted a two round total score that will qualify for the 3rd round, withdraws before or after the 3rd round draw is made, the player's score will still be used to calculate the leading 70 places and ties that will determine the cut mark.

- (5) The R&A arranges publicity before and during The Open in the Press and by live and recorded radio and television broadcasting and filming and on the Internet. Each player agrees to make reasonable efforts during the Championship to attend press conferences and to co-operate with the media in support of The Open including, appearances for The R&A's broadcast partners. Players will be responsible for ensuring that they hold all the necessary rights to grant the above assignments, including appropriate agreements with their caddies. Notwithstanding the foregoing grant of rights, The R&A and its assignees and licensees agree that, other than as permitted above, they will not authorise any company contractually associated with The R&A to use the player's or caddie's name, voice, likeness and biographical material in a way which constitutes the endorsement by the player of a product or service, without first requiring such associated company to obtain the player's authorisation. Also, to comply with certain contractual limitations relating to advertising on television, players assent that they or their caddies may not, without the prior approval of The R&A, display any commercial identification on clothing or equipment other than that customarily affixed to and of the normal size and in the normal position on any such clothing or equipment.
- (6) The R&A requires players and their team to conduct themselves in a manner that is respectful of The Open and the sport of golf. ### B. THE OPEN QUALIFYING SERIES

For those entrants not exempt under The Open under section E, the qualifying procedure will be as follows:

THE OPEN QUALIFYING SERIES (OQS)

With the exception of ties for first place, which will be determined in accordance with the Terms for the tournament concerned, ties will be decided in favour of the highest ranked player in OWGR at the commencement of the tournament. The card countback will use the back 9 holes of the course or 6 or 3 or 2 or 1 hole and if a tie still arises, the last 6 or 3 or 2 or 1 hole of the front 9 holes of the course in the final round in OQS. If a tie still arises the same card countback will be used for the 3rd, 2nd and 1st rounds of the tournament. Any golfer earning a qualifying place who then becomes exempt under one or more categories before the closing date of entries for The Open on 1 June will result in that place being awarded to the next non-exempt golfer, which will be determined by a reserve list for each event played before this date.
