Hospitality at The Open

150TH ST ANDREWS

11 - 18 July 2021

The Open is where reputations are built and history made as the world's best players battle it out for the title of Champion Golfer of the Year.

150TH ST ANDREWS

The likes of Willie Park Snr and Old Tom Morris could never have imagined what The Open would become when they played in the 1st Championship at Prestwick in 1860, with a field of just 8 players.

Now, 161 years, and 149 Opens later the home of golf will host The 150th Open at the Old Course, St Andrews. On what is sure to be a historic Open with record crowds, the world's greatest players will descend on Fife to try and capture the Claret Jug.

The Home of Golf, the home of great Champions. The 150th Open will be played on the historic links of The Old Course for the 30th time.

THE CLARET JUG

The Golf Champion Trophy, now commonly referred to as the Claret Jug, was made by Mackay Cunningham & Company of Edinburgh and was hallmarked 1873. The first Champion Golfer to receive the new trophy was the 1873 winner, Tom Kidd, but Tom Morris Jr's name was the first to be engraved on it as the 1872 winner.

ENGRAVERS

at The Open

The engraver's art is all about precision and the finest detail. It is a silver service – premium, polished, select – demanding grace under pressure to deliver the highest quality workmanship when the winner is known and the world is watching. The Champion Golfer of the Year lifts the Claret Jug, but only the engraver is entrusted to leave their mark on it.

CLUBMAKERS

at The Open

The clubmaker's expertise has been sought after since The Open began in 1860. Cutting-edge technology and high-tech materials now define the modern game, but their craft continues to be inspired by the heritage and values of the past. Iron heads are no longer forged by hand in the foundry, but the quest to refine a club to enhance a player's game remains the same.

SCORERS

at The Open

Every shot logged. Fairways hit or missed, clubs used off the tee and to the green. The drives, the chips, the putts. Scores recorded, checked, signed for. A numbers' game with its own language. At the first Open in 1860, competitors' scores were scrutinised and written down by their gentlemen backers and independent markers. Digital hand-held devices are now the tool of the scorer's trade. Yet echoes of the past remain. On the 18th green, the sound of the scores being manually updated on the giant leaderboard recalls the origins of The Open.

Hearty favourites served up in a relaxed and informal environment Situated inside the popular Spectator Village, this experience offers hospitality to those looking for a more informal environment. The atmosphere never disappoints and the location, just a short walk away from the 16th hole of the Old Course, ensures you are never far away from the action.

Enjoy the social aspect of Scorers and benefit from the use of a private garden whilst watching the drama unfold on the TV screens. Keep one eye on the scores as you savour the hearty favourites and fresh salads which are served up by our experienced chefs.

Upgrade to Scorers Premium and you will benefit from guaranteeing your own private table for the entire day. This is available for 10 guests per table.

OUR ICONIC LEADERBOARDS

Pupils from the boarding schools of Charterhouse and Cranleigh have been manually operating the two leaderboards at the 18th green since 1979. Assisted by real-time digital scorekeeping, the students still change the names, scores and positions by hand. More than 40 years later, posting a leader board update first remains a matter of pride.
